SINGER. SONGWRITER. CREATIVE.

ABOUT XAVIER

I'm a Liverpool-based singer-songwriter and independent artist originally from Hong Kong.

My music sits in uplifting pop, blended with elements of funk and rap, and at the heart of everything I create is storytelling.

Each song reflects different chapters of life, from navigating rejection and building self-love, to believing in your journey and chasing your dreams.

“Xav is a dream to work with, her energy is infectious.”
